I SUPPORT SB 381, SB 490, SB 440 AND ESPECIALLY SB 762, WHICH REPEALS THE CAT TAX.

This tax is the reason our state isn't at the top of the financial boom in the US. Instead, we are barely hanging on to a little dribble of growth that is quickly disappearing with this session stomping on business and household incomes. If we don't have money to spend, there will never be growth and if businesses can't pay us to keep up with inflation, we won't have money to spend. Apple has sights on Oregon, but for how long with all the nonsense bills being proposed. Repealing the CAT tax would produce more income tax than the CAT tax is providing. At least raise the exemption.
