Measure, Appointment or Topic: SB1098

As a Grandmother I am most committed to opposing SB 1098, in order to have some assurance that reading materials stay appropriate for age and/or culture. Parents have the right to raise their children according to the principles important to the parents and to teach their children accordingly, without fear of inappropriate materials being made available to them through the school or local libraries that might defeat those teachings. Let those that are willing to be committed parents be the parents we want them to be.
