

Chair Frederick, Co-Chair Weber, and members of the committee.

My name is Morgan Hrejsa from Portland, Oregon, and I am writing to urge you to support Senate Bill 1098, which will prohibit discrimination based on the race, religion, ability, country of origin, sexuality, or gender of the individuals featured in the content of educational and library materials in K-12 public schools in Oregon.

In Oregon, we have seen countless efforts to ban books that feature LGBTQIA2S+, Black people, Indigenous people and other people of color. topics or individuals and restrict access for students to understand the positive contributions of individuals of marginalized identities who have contributed to our society. This bill creates a statewide standard ensuring freedom of information both to users of that information, as well as providers of that information, for example librarians and educators. It also ensures students have access to accurate and representative information about their histories, communities and selves.

As a mother of an elementary school-aged son, it is important to me that he develops empathy and understanding as part of his education. There is no better way to experience the world from different perspectives than through literature. I want him to know that the world is made up of many different people, experiences, and stories. I support this bill so that my son, and all of Oregon's students, will have access to all histories and cultures.

Senate Bill 1098 protects student's right to see themselves represented in the books, materials and classrooms they learn from and to learn about diverse communities and people.

Thank you for taking the time to hear my story today. We urge you to vote YES to support and advance Senate Bill 1098.

Thank you,

Morgan Hrejsa
