

Submitter:

William Starr

On Behalf Of:

Committee:

Senate Committee On Education

Measure, Appointment or Topic:

SB1098

I rise in opposition to this bill since it is an over reach of state government. Local school boards are designed to govern their own school district. School districts have policies and procedures in place when there is a book or curriculum that is considered inappropriate by a constituent of the district. We should use the procedures and systems that are in place.