Absolutely not!! The vast majority of 16 and 17-year-olds are under the heavy influence of the schools that indoctrinate them with liberal ideologies. This will make teachers MORE prone to focusing on their own political opinions rather than the subjects they are supposed to be teaching. Teachers will be tempted to influence kids on how they should vote because those votes will directly impact the teacher's jobs. LEAVE OUR KIDS ALONE. They can vote when they are legal adults. No sooner.
