

Submitter:

Catherine Ordway

On Behalf Of:

Committee:

Senate Committee On Education

Measure, Appointment or Topic:

SB1098

We need to make sure students' identities aren't used as the basis for removing educational materials from school libraries. All students deserve to be represented within their school libraries, including students whose identities are currently being targeted. Lastly, book bans based on discrimination should not be occurring within public schools - that shouldn't even be up for debate.