

Submitter: Adrienne Perkins

On Behalf Of:

Committee: Senate Committee On Education

Measure, Appointment or Topic: SB1098

Books should foster curiosity and debate and the sharing of ideas. And education should expand what people learn, not limit it. Not any one person or group of people should dictate to others what literature or knowledge they're allowed to consume. To do so sides with the oppressor and is a dangerous precedent to set.