

Submitter: Kady Davis

On Behalf Of:

Committee: Senate Committee On Education

Measure, Appointment or Topic: SB1098

Banning books only limits learning for our children. Parents and families can make their own decisions about how to navigate complex issues but removing the opportunity to learn only hurts children's ability to find information that can reduce stigma and understand the world and our shared history.