I support reducing the regulatory burdens to produce more housing. While I don't want Oregon to become a place where anything goes, it seems like our well-intentioned guard rails are stopping us from providing enough housing. Please don't let developers take over and run the show, just make it easier to build affordable housing. I only hope that this study could be sped up and be done by Sep 2025 instead of 2026! We needed to defeat this housing crisis 10 years ago!
