1. Age 18 is not the age of consent. 16 year olds cannot enter into a contract or have the legal capacity to contract. A 16 year old cannot sign a contract. Voting is a contract.

2. My focus when I was 16 was boys, my drivers license, and getting a job for chic clothing.

4. There is nothing in this bill stating how it would motivate the younger teens to vote for school board elections or if a 16 year old would be able to vote on bond (money) issues. This bill is a recruitment tool for voter registration for a certain political party. (I don't know why the OEA is pushing this bill because, they do not even teach civics in the classroom)
