

Submitter: Ursula Walters

On Behalf Of:

Committee: Joint Committee On Transportation

Measure, Appointment or Topic: HB3362

Oregon tax payers are tired of additional taxes being piled upon us. The tire tax is especially difficult for lower income Oregonians who struggle to buy the most basic tires. The higher prices will just keep people from purchasing safe tires for their vehicles, thus increasing accidents on our highways.