

Submitter: Roslyn Gray

On Behalf Of:

Committee: Senate Committee On Early Childhood and Behavioral Health

Measure, Appointment or Topic: SB702

Let's raise healthier generations. Flavored tobacco products disproportionately affect low income and young people, adding to financial burden and compromised health outcomes. There's no reason to promote this market.