

Submitter: Capt Brad Fry

On Behalf Of:

Committee: Senate Committee On Judiciary

Measure, Appointment or Topic: SB821

In my opinion only one risk level should be applied and that is the highest possible. Those who abuse children ruining their lives molest hundreds before being caught. They should stay incarcerated until they have a risk level. They should be incarcerated if they fail to register where they are settled.