Topic: SB78

I urge you to Vote NO on SB78

It is NOT the role of government to tell a property owner what size home they can build. This is government CONTROL. AND REGULATION ABUSE. For a bunch of people who scream about freedom & democracy this bill is neither. People work hard to own their homes, and it is not the government's job to then tell them how large they can be if they need to replace or rebuild their homes for Whatever reason, This is a very abusive bill, and I hope you have the good sense to Vote NO!
