Topic: SB78

SB78 is another terrible idea. Regardless of the argument in favor, SB78 limits people's dreams and aspirations while growing government.

The arguments in favor should read,

SB78 intends to solve this (insert issue here) by growing government and limiting people's dreams and aspirations immediately after suffering a lifechanging loss. Additionally, SB78 will help to (manage, constrain, curtail, influence) (insert issue her) by growing government and limiting people's dreams and aspirations immediately after suffering a lifechanging loss. SB78 will also make some people feel better at the expense of others by growing government and limiting the dreams and aspirations of fellow citizens that they neither know nor care about, immediately after they have suffered a lifechanging loss. In closing, we are counting on your vote to keep us in congress for another election cycle after we pass SB78, which will grow government and limit your dreams and aspirations immediately after you have suffered a lifechanging loss. And you should know that we appreciate you putting your life on hold and "taking one for the team", while we do whatever we can to make your existence less hopeful and less meaningful. Best! -Your Elected Officials
