In 2023, I was laid off from my job and unemployment and my cleaning job was the only source of income for my teenage boys and I. With the rising cost of groceries and rent, the foodbank allowed me to feed my boys without having to worry if I should pay my light or internet bill. I don't know the reasoning behind cutting out foodbanks but please don't get rid of it. Its a lifesaver and security that single moms with kids will not go hungry. I am sharing my story because at no point in time, anyone can be in this situation and foodbank literally saves their family from hunger.
