Food is a human right and far too many Oregonians, let alone Americans overall do not have food security.

We cannot allow barriers to food aid to be present as a first step if we are to properly address food insecurity in Oregon.

Aid programs can't work with the speed they need to if they are made to jump through bureaucratic hoops off the bat, we can't be delaying critical aid to Oregonians when we're fully capable of verification and fraud prevention after the fact.
