

Submitter: Gary Smith

On Behalf Of:

Committee: House Committee On Climate, Energy, and Environment

Measure, Appointment or
Topic: HB3681

Permitting procedures are outdated and too complex. Oregon needs to facilitate those procedures, while maintaining proper oversight of project impacts, in order to have an electrical transmission system that meets our needs ten years from now.