

Submitter: Cheryl Forrest

On Behalf Of:

Committee: House Committee On Rules

Measure, Appointment or Topic: HJR11

I believe in the democratic process and believe voters should have the right to a voice and be heard by those who are chosen to represent them. Many times congressmen and women and legislators do not engage their constituents broadly enough to allow voters to be heard. The petition process is one way voters concerns can be heard. The number of submissions should stay the same as in the past and the petition process should be left unencumbered.