

Submitter: Brad Dennis

On Behalf Of:

Committee: House Committee On Climate, Energy, and Environment

Measure, Appointment or Topic: HB3477

I see that the bill changes the phrase "global warming" to "climate change". This will be useful to the government for times when there is cooling taking place. Cooling can be considered "climate change" and therefore allow the government continue to exert their control through taxation.