

Submitter: Bill Bold

On Behalf Of:

Committee: House Committee On Climate, Energy, and Environment

Measure, Appointment or Topic: HB3107

Who controls the contracting process here? THE DEQ should at all times have control of who and what their contractors do for them. This law seems to reverse the process and now the DEQ must respond when someone asks for a contract? This concept is rubbish.