

Submitter: Kristen Caron
On Behalf Of: Self
Committee: House Committee On Behavioral Health and Health Care
Measure, Appointment or Topic: HB2029

I have only ever been through OPH based audits and I can attest to how confusing, aggressive, and particularly demanding they can be. The rules are open to much interpretation, such that there is so much subjective interpretation which can be done by auditors in their favor of scrutiny-not healthcare. I am in support of this bill which supports therapists under audit fire.