I live in Portland, and love to see live music and other performances in PDX and other cities in Oregon. I've been attending ticketed events for enough years to see prices skyrocket. They will be inaccessible to my kids if we aren't able to get the issue of scalpers under control. On a related note, empty seats inside when there is demand outside makes no sense for the fans, the artists, the venue, or the promoters. Thank you for your consideration of this bill!
