Measure, Appointment or Topic: SB611

Throughout my youth, my single mother struggled to make enough money despite a full time job and child support, and we visited food shelves to help supplement groceries. Having this option was incredibly important for helping us navigate low-income, and specifically for giving me tools and understanding to become upwardly mobile. I firmly believe every Oregonian — regardless of race, citizenship, gender, household, and more — has a right to food security and support, especially in our unstable economic environment.
