At the age of seven , my parents were divorced and I had to take on the responsibility of taking care of a four year old and the six year old. My mom did not make enough to support 3 kids. There were days when we didn't know if we would eat. We would visit food banks for food that would only feed us kids and my mom would go hungry. I remember being a kid and going through garbage cans. No one should ever have to feel hunger, ever.
