

Submitter: Jessy Hampton

On Behalf Of:

Committee: House Committee On Judiciary

Measure, Appointment or Topic: HB2851

This bill must be opposed—we are in a time where the fundamental rights that should be central to our democracy are being threatened and violated by the highest levels of government. Rather than expand vague and dangerous powers to stifle dissent, we should be affirming and further codifying Americans' right to freedom of speech and assembly.