

Submitter: Megan Fishman

On Behalf Of:

Committee: House Committee On Judiciary

Measure, Appointment or Topic: HB2851

This bill must be repealed in its entirety, not expanded. The right to protest is a fundamentally American right and it speaks volumes that the assembly would seek to silence and prosecute its own people. Look to history to predict how successfully those choices are received.