

Submitter: Katy Drawhorn

On Behalf Of:

Committee: House Committee On Judiciary

Measure, Appointment or Topic: HB2851

Do not redefine the word “terrorism” to target anyone speaking out on injustice or human rights, while pardoning and platforming white supremacists.

There is a long history of federal, state, and local governments using terrorism and other related laws for surveillance of Black and brown communities and to silence anyone participating in political dissent. We can see that now with Trump having ICE detain Mahmoud Khalil.