

Submitter: Preston Conroy

On Behalf Of:

Committee: House Committee On Judiciary

Measure, Appointment or Topic: HB3075

Rights are guaranteed to the citizens. They stand above the rule of law to be protected by the government. Rights do not require permits, doing so is unconstitutional. You cannot legislate a permit to speak, a permit to the press, a permit for a firearm or a permit to practice your religion.