Measure, Appointment or Topic: HB3075

HB 3075 is sixty-four pages long. Once again it sounds, looks, smells, like a laundry list. Would legislature representative(s) stop importing the far-left agenda from other states on the gun owners of Oregon.

1. All this is in the name of reduction of gun violence act. Emergency clause for gun violence. No, it is not an emergency. It is a laundry list from the far-left agenda.
2. Measure 114 how much did it cost the state of Oregon? And it was proven unconstitutional.
3. Our Oregon legislatures did know it was unconstitutional and attempted to push it through anyway.
4. What Oregon needs to do is support a commonsense approach. I strongly suggest our legislature must go through random UA testing weekly why'll working for the voters of Oregon. You fail, immediately fired no rehab for you. You know the rules and you broke them.
5. Start over and write a bill with 60 Flesch reading score, NOT 79. A clean clear-thinking brain is a great processor. And it will write a commonsense legislature bill(s) for the entire State of Oregon not just one tiny group from the far-left agenda band wagon members.
