

Submitter: Adele Thompson

On Behalf Of:

Committee: House Committee On Climate, Energy, and Environment

Measure, Appointment or
Topic: HB3512

Widespread use of "forever" chemicals is leading to environmental and biologic accumulation. As the potential harm from exposure and ingestion is now known, controlling their continued use becomes more urgent. The especially concentrated exposure experienced by firefighters using these products is particularly poignant and preventable with available alternatives.