

Submitter: Bonnie Shumaker
On Behalf Of: small woodland owners
Committee: Senate Committee On Labor and Business
Measure, Appointment or Topic: SB1061

I definitely support this. Fine lumber comes from portable mills, but it is not permissible to use without being graded by a professional. The cost and availability of having this done makes it impossible. Training for small operators to perform grading would be a big help.