The 2nd Amendment is the American people's first line of defense against those who would do us harm. In most cases, police are only able to respond after the incident has occurred not in time to prevent it. The 2nd Amendment is a God given right, according to the founding fathers who wrote it, not a government privilege that the government can take away as it pleases. Your focus, as a government serving the people, needs to be stopping criminals and crime, not preventing law-abiding citizens from exercising their Constitutionally protected rights.
