Dear Legislators -

I am an Oregonian who wants to live in a place where I feel safe from gun violence, so I was shocked to find out that the average gun dealer is inspected only once every 57 years. It is small wonder that 6,000 crime guns were recovered in our state last year.

Nearly all industries - from taco truck to salons and nail shops - are inspected. We must ensure the deadly gun industry is held accountable to follow basic business standards.
