Measure, Appointment or Topic: HB3075

HB 3075 is a blatant overreach that punishes responsible gun owners, restricts access to firearms, and shields the government from accountability. The Oregon Legislature should be focusing on real solutions to crime rather than continuing its misguided war on constitutional rights. If this bill passes, it will not make our communities safer—it will only make it harder for law-abiding Oregonians to protect themselves and their families from the criminals that do not follow laws.
