

Submitter: Patrick Farabaugh

On Behalf Of:

Committee: House Committee On Judiciary

Measure, Appointment or Topic: HB3075

All the provisions of M114 are unconstitutional despite what the Appeals court says because they didn't properly apply SCOTUS's Bruen decision faithfully. Codifying M114's provisions into law will get immediately challenged and most likely will be overturned.

Save us the taxpayers the costs from having to defend these bad laws and put your efforts into something that really matters. Like going after actual criminals and not making the law-abiding into criminals.