Measure, Appointment or Topic: HB3075

The problem is not the guns or the magazine capacity but the people that choose to do harm to others. It makes no sense to make all law abiding citizens criminals. You can pass all the laws you want against the law abiding citizens it will not stop anyone who wants to kill or harm anyone from doing so. The criminals are always going to find ways to get their hands on guns and high capacity magazines. Do you honestly think that they are going to follow the law and rules that you impose upon the law abiding citizens. It makes as much sense as putting candy in front of a child and telling don't eat it because I said not to. Only criminals commit crimes!!!!
