

Submitter:

David Klaus

On Behalf Of:

Committee:

House Committee On Revenue

Measure, Appointment or Topic:

HB3755

By the time a person reaches 65, they have already spent a lifetime working and paying enough taxes. Many seniors live on fixed incomes and property taxes make it that much harder for them to make ends meet, especially in these inflationary times. Our hard-working seniors have earned the right to have a break from having what they worked so hard for repeatedly taxed.