

Submitter: Peter Harding

On Behalf Of:

Committee: House Committee On Judiciary

Measure, Appointment or Topic: HB3075

I have owned guns in the past and STILL do not believe nor feel it's any source of inconvenience to apply for or have a background check done in order to purchase a firearm. I consider it part of the process showing responsible ownership for a firearm. I would have to wonder at anyone's intent if they were complaining about a minimal waiting period for a permit. After all, this is in the name of RESPONSIBLE gun ownership.