Measure, Appointment or Topic: HB3075

I have a lot of family who own guns for hobby and hunting, and while I don't want them to lose their rights, I think there are a lot of things we can do to improve gun safety. I also don't think people understand the mental stress that teachers and students are under every time we have another school shooting in our country. It is imperative that we support this legislation, but we also must support those who will have to implement and enforce these regulations. I know having more regulations in place will be frustrating to people who have to jump through more hoops, or worry about the "cost" of things, but is the safety and security of our people and children not enough to justify it? I am in support of this legislation.
