

Submitter: Emma Andre

On Behalf Of:

Committee: House Committee On Behavioral Health and Health Care

Measure, Appointment or
Topic: HB3912

This is very cumbersome and controlling. If someone has rightfully their doctorate, they should have a right to use that title without having to constantly qualify it. The rules currently in place already protect the use of titles, and it has not been problematic. This does not make sense and would prove costly for everyone to change (all signage and print materials??) Please don't pass this.