I'm curious if the state of Oregon understands the United States constitution. The constitution was not intended for interpretation. It's black and white. Simply put shall not be infringed. My rights don't end where your feelings begin. If you oppose guns and the rights that go with them then don't own one. It's that simple. There is a lot more to Oregon and our beliefs than what the city of Portland thinks and I believe they need a reminder of that on a regular basis.
