

Submitter: Dan Stephenson

On Behalf Of:

Committee: House Committee On Judiciary

Measure, Appointment or Topic: HB3075

First off the bill and it's predecessor 114 are absolutely unconstitutional. 2nd, Increased fees and training requirements can create financial barriers, especially for lower-income individuals who want to exercise their Second Amendment rights. If the permitting process becomes more complex or expensive, it could also harm small businesses that rely on firearm sales and training services.