HB3075

I do not support this measure it's stupid and literally does not even do anything. I don't understand why people believe that guns kill people, no it's literally people who are not responsible that kill people. I am a responsible gun owner and I feel like this should oppose to the people who actually follow the laws and everything. This measure also fucks our 2nd amendment and our right to bear arms. And what are we supposed to do if this goes into effect just throw away our mags!?!? Why should we let people who don't own guns vote or protest this measure into effect!!!
