This bill 1076 is one of the most poorly worded bills I have ever read, they have no outline of structure, its not fiscally responsible

To start charging rescues to rescue is unbelievable. To want to threaten people with jail time and fines should their dog have a litter of puppies, is appalling. There is zero benefits to this bill, except to the humane society so they can try and steal people's pets as a money grab.

There is no real outline of where the fees go, and who this benefits, oregon has hundreds of laws regarding animal welfare and this just adds another layer of oregon becoming a police state.
