

Submitter:

KYLE SCHMITGALL

On Behalf Of:

Committee:

House Committee On Judiciary

Measure, Appointment or Topic:

HB3075

Oppose. This will make it extremely hard for minorities or people who are financially challenged to be able to purchase a weapon to defend themselves, it will also put more strain on the police and cost countless tax dollars in a state that is already in financial crisis. Criminals will still get firearms illegally and this will just leave citizens helpless in defending themselves