This is unethical to add another tax to the hard-working people, you throw money to just about anything while we're all struggling to make it by as it is, there's a reason people aren't buying houses and new cars. There's a reason people are going bankrupt because the debt to income ratio is absolutely out of balance and you wanna add another tax to that so we all struggle even more I think this is absolutely ridiculous and I do not support it. I'm very much opposed and I pray this bill does not pass.
