

Submitter: Rebecca McCroskey

On Behalf Of:

Committee: Senate Committee On Rules

Measure, Appointment or Topic: SB437

Another blow to print media. One remaining revenue source for newspapers is the public notice. It's still the best way to disseminate this information to the general public, many of whom may not subscribe to online news sources or may not have access to or literacy with a computer. If we want to keep good newspapers, like my favorite, The Eugene Weekly, we need to stop finding ways to bury them.