

Submitter: Larry Williams
On Behalf Of: Self
Committee: House Committee On Higher Education and Workforce Development
Measure, Appointment or Topic: HB3826

"For companies that rely upon their skilled labor workforce, expanding opportunities to increase the diversity of their teams involves identifying ways to make the trades more appealing to women. A great place to start is an apprenticeship program." from Breaking Barriers and Building Futures: How Investing in Training Helps Women in the Skilled Trades
by Natalie Williams, Ancora Training | Sponsored Content, on Sep 10, 2024 10:30:48 AM

<https://www.womenintrucking.org/blog/breaking-barriers-and-building-futures-how-investing-in-training-helps-women-in-the-skilled-trades>