Measure, Appointment or Topic: HB3075

This bill is unconstitutional and limits the ability for women to protect themselves, and their children, against potential assailants at a particular time of high violent crime rate against women. This bill also limits those who traverse in wilderness areas (for sport or work) capability of defending themselves against predators. This includes mountain lions and wolves, both which have been observed to work in prides or packs. Yes, mountain lions are now commonly sees groups of 3-5. Quit violating the natural right of Oregonians to protect their lives and those of their children. Vote NO on HB 3075.
